Residential on 0.00 Acres

Parkhill, Calgary, Alberta

Nestled in the prestigious neighborhood of Parkhill, this spacious and well-maintained one-bedroom, one-bathroom condominium offers an exceptional blend of urban convenience and natural beauty. Designed with a modern open floor plan, this residence is ideal for working professionals who appreciate both city living and the great outdoors.

Strategically located just five minutes from downtown Calgary, this home provides effortless access to the city's vibrant business and entertainment districts. The unit is also a stone's throw from Stanley Park, Elbow River, and an extensive network of scenic hiking and biking trails, making it a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. From the street, residents can enjoy breathtaking views of the mountains and the iconic Calgary Tower, adding to the property's appeal. Connectivity is unparalleled, with Macleod Trail offering direct access to the rest of the city and the 39 Avenue C-Train station just minutes away, ensuring seamless commuting. Additionally, Chinook Centre, Calgary's premier shopping and entertainment destination, is a mere five-minute drive, providing an array of retail, dining, and leisure options.

The condo itself exudes both comfort and functionality. A modern breakfast bar seamlessly integrates with the open-concept design, making it an inviting space for casual dining or entertaining guests. The inclusion of a European washer/dryer combo enhances convenience, while ample storage space and abundant parking add to the unit's practicality. As part of a self-managed condominium, the property is meticulously maintained, ensuring a high standard of living. Moreover, the building is pet-friendly, allowing residents to share their home with their beloved companions.

Beyond the unit, the surrounding community offers an array of amenities that promote an active lifestyle. Stanley Park features a community pool, as well as tennis and badminton courts, providing excellent recreational opportunities right at your doorstep. Whether seeking tranquility in nature, easy access to urban conveniences, or a comfortable and stylish living space, this property encapsulates the best of both worlds.
